AMITY

Mr. Bragg

Mr. Stults

Mr. Bragg, Shawnee's principal, supervises school activities and the educational programs and promotes better school life. He also supervises teachers and attends school conferences. Mr. Stults, the assistant principal, assists Mr. Bragg with counseling of students and supervision of students in the lunchroom and during extra curricular activities.

The People We Couldn't Do Without

Miss Ransom and Mr. Jordan assist students with class programs, future plans, and personal problems. They also administer tests and interpret test results. Both counselors work out any problems students may have to make school a more enjoyable experience.
